

INIMITABLE

Written and Composed for

BRYANT'S MINSTRELS,

OF NEW YORK, BY

DAN. D. EMMETT.

No. 1.-I wish I was in Dixie's Land.

- " 2.-Old K-Y-Ky.
- " 3.-Billy Patterson.
- " 4.-Wide Awake.
- " 5.-John come down the Hollow.
- " 6.-Go-Way-Boys.

PIANO.

GUITAR.

NEW YORK:

Published by FIRTH, POND & CO., 547 Broadway.

BOSTON-O. DISTON & CO.

NEW ORLEANS-P. P. WERLEIN.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1860, by FIRTH, POND & CO., in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States, for the Southern District of New York.

BILLY PATTERSON.

Words & Music by D. D. EMMETT.

Arranged by F. YOUNKER.

Ent'd according to Act of Congress AD 1860 by Firth, Pond & Coin the Clerk's Office of the Dis't Court of the South'n Distof N.V.

I eat up de goose dat rais'd de quill,

Dat wrote de question: "Who struck Bill?"

I work'd at de kiln whar de brick was burnt,

But who throw'd de brick was nebber learn't.

Chorus. Bill Patterson rode bye &c.

3

I knows ob a chap dat's up to de fun,
He knows who struck Bill Patterson;
But take my word he will nebber tell,
Unless somebody pays him well.

Chorus. Bill Patterson rode bye &c.

4

Dar's one ting sartin an plain for to see,
'Twas neider 'Sayres' nor 'Morrisey;'
Dey both told me (or I is a liar,)
'Twas eider 'Heenan' or 'Old Tom Hyer.'

Chorus. Bill Patterson rode bye &c.

5

Money in de pocket shines so bright,
Old Bill got struck on Saturday night;
De lightnin flash_ he seen de 'seben stars!
He tink he was struck wid de bullgine cars!
Chorus. Bill Patterson rode bye &c.

6

If ebber you get to de Fiddler's Green,'

A labelled niggar can be seen,

Wid a sign on his back dat weighs a ton,

"I'm de darkie struck Bill Patterson!"

Chorus. Bill Patterson rode bye &c.

No. 3. THE LATEST AND BEST 1860. SONGS AND BALLADS

BY THE MOST POPULAR AUTHORS,

PUBLISHED BY

FIRTH, POND & CO., 547 Broadway, NEW-YORK,

(BETWEEN THE ST. NICHOLAS AND METROPOLITAN HOTELS.)

MUSIC PUBLISHED DAILY. ALL NEW MUSIC RECEIVED AS SOON AS PUBLISHED.

MUSIC SENT BY MAIL, POSTAGE PAID, ON RECEIPT OF THE MARKED PRICE.

Please notice that such as are marked thus * have elegantly illustrated Title-pages.

Tieaso notice sitat	such as are marked thus & have elegantly in
VOCAL.	Composer. Price.
All Alone,	Oh! my Love,
Bonnie Jean,	Old Dreams of Love,
Cable Song, DAN BRYANT, 25	Praise we the everlasting Lord. Anthem, CLEMENT WHITE, 35
Call the Children Early, H. TUCKER, 25 A beautiful little song for Sabbath-Schools, arranged for the Piano or Melodeon.	The words of the above song were written by John Brougham, Esq., in one of his noblest veins, and was rendered by Mr. Carl Formes, at the Crystal Palace.
Clara; or, From the Spell of Memory, GEO. LINLEY, 20 Easy, pleasing, and chaste.	Parthenia to Ingomar
Clouds of Summer Evening. Song and	Sweet Voices are calling. Duet, S. LAURENCE, 25
Chorus,	A patriotic song.
Columbia rules the Sea,	Star of my Home,
	Sailor's Return,
Darling Rosabel,	Somebody's Courting Somebody,FRED. BUCKLEY, 25 Very pleasing, and sure to take well.
Don't let the Roses listen,	Sound of Harps Angelical. From the
Don't you cry so, Norah darling,	"Martyrs,"
Don't you remember the time,J. R. THOMAS, 25	Sadly to mine Heart appealing,8. C. FOSTER, 30 Really a most beautiful song, and is immensely popular.
A most capital and effective song. Fairy Queen. Valse Song,	* Staten Island Gentleman. Comic,THOS. BAKER, 50
Fisherman's Return,	Tell me not that other eyes are half so fair as thine, 25
This is another beautiful gem from the pen of Mr. Foster, and we predict for it a success unprecedented.	'Tis the Heart makes the Home,J. H. McNAUGHTON, 35
Good Time has come,	There's beauty every where, 8. LAURENCE, 35 An excellent quartet.
which are extensively used. Good Night, Beloved,	There's not a Heath,
One of Balfe's richest gems. It should appear in the repertoire of all aspiring amateurs.	Trust her not. Duet, BALFE, 50
Happy as a King, E. L. HIME, 20	When will you love me? E. L. HIME, 25
I'd choose to be a Daisy,FRED. BUCKLEY, 25	This beautiful song will be as great a favorite as "Something to Love me," and numerous other popular ballads by its well-known author.
I'm turning gray, dear Kate, " " 25	Where has Lula gone ?
I've been roaming o'er the Prairies, " 25 The above three songs are sung nightly by the "Buckley Troupe,"	A companion to "Lula is gone," and pronounced by all who have heard it to be a "charming ballad."
and are applauded immensely. They will have a great run.	WHOM I MAIN ORD, THE LAURENCE, 30
Kitty, my Love, and I,McNAUGHTON, 25 A beautiful little song.	We are growing old together,
* Linger in blissful repose,	Where shall we find our Homo? Duet,GLOVER, 35
Linda has departed, " " 25	You ask me the Why and the Where-
Lula is gone,	fore, A. BAGIOLI, 25 This admired ballad is sung by Miss Kate Dean, at all her concerts.
Let me die, though Spring has come, C. DE JANON, 25	Yellow Rose of Texas, J. K., 25 It is a most astonishing fact that three thousand copies have been
Laughing Jennie,	printed and sold of this pleasing song since the new year. The demand has in nowise abated, and we desire all our friends to purchase a copy at once.
Look thou gav'st to me, H. MILLARD, 25
Loved and the Lost,
Maud Adair and I,	whose world-wide reputation has for years appeared as a "bright, particular star" in musical circles, whose songs are "familiar as household words," still claims universal admiration and attention. We most cordially invite the no-
My loved one and my own; or, "Eva," S. C. FOSTER, 25 This beautiful song is extensively sung in public, as well as in the drawing-room; and being one of the author's best, comment is un-	tice of all to the following exquisite ballads, fresh from the pen of this gifted author: Linda has departed,
Nellie, wilt thou be my Bride? CHAS OSBORNE OF	Lula has gone, 30
Nellie, wilt thou be my Bride?	Parthenia to Ingomar,
A charming ballad, carefully harmonized, and is one of Mr. Buck-	Sadly to mine Heart appealing 30
ley's finest compositions.	Where has Lula gone? 30

MR. FRED. BUCKLEY.

This promising young composer—prominently known as being connected with that talented band, the "Buckley Troupe"—has just written the follow ing very excellent ballads, which have recently appeared among the numerous judiciously-selected and standard publications issued by our house. As these ballads are sung at all the concerts of this troupe, who are now visiting the principal cities, and where they are received by most gratifying applause, we predict a great demand.

	Proposition of the contract of
)	I'd choose to be a Daisy,	25
	I'm turning gray, dear Kate,	25
	I've been roaming o'er the Prairies,	25
)	Laughing Jennie,	25
	Somebody's Courting Somebody,	25
	We are growing old together,	25
- 1	Oh! where are my Schoolmates gone?

MR. J. R. THOMAS.

This excellent vocalist is well known as being a very thorough and successful teacher of vocal music and cultivation of the voice, in our city, as well as the author of a number of the most pleasing and popular songs at the present day; among which we will mention, "Cottage by the Sea," "We were Boys and Girls together," "I wish Somebody'd come," "Old Farm-House," "Moonlit Sea," "The Owl," etc., etc.

We now offer to all lovers of graceful melody and rich harmony the following little gems, namely:

5	*Annie Law,	30
	Don't you remember the time,
	My dear, my Native Home,	25
)	Star of my Home,	25
	We were Boys and Girls together,

MR. H. MILLARD.

This well-known tenor singer is a composer of superior ability and tact, He has studied composition under the most able masters in Europe, and we now append the titles of his last and best efforts, all of which are beautiful, especially so for the drawing-room:

All Alone,	25
Clouds of Summer Evening. Song and Chorus,	30
Don't you cry so, Norah darling,	25
The Home where Roses grew,	25
The look thou gav'st to me,	25
There's not a Heath	95

GUITAR SONGS, ETC.

	star" in musical circles, whose songs are "familiar as household words," still claims universal admiration and attention. We most cordially invite the no-	Bonnie Jean,	rice. 25
	tice of all to the following exquisite ballads, fresh from the pen of this gifted	Farewell, ye bright Visions. "Travlata," FRED. BUCKLEY,	25
	Linda has departed, 25	Gayly through Life wander. " " "	25
	Lula has gone. 30	I see her still in my Dreams, " "	25
		My loved one and my own,	25
ь.		Soon shall we, dearest. Duet, "Traviata," "	25
		Village Maiden,
		TOTAL ALOND OF ADMINISTRATION OF THE PROPERTY.	-