Respectfully Dedicated TO ALL WHO

HURRAH FOR OUR NATIONAL GAME.

WRITTEN BY
WALTER NEVILLE
OF THE OLYMPIC B.B. CLUB OF NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.
Published by C.H. DITSON & CO., 77 Broadway
HURRAH FOR OUR NATIONAL GAME.

Tempo di marcia.

WALTER NEVILLE.

Piano.

1. Hurrah for our game, our National game There's health in its ev'ry bound.
2. The tim - id lament o'er such danger. ous fun And groan at that terri - ble ball.
3. The Gamester may boast of the pleasures of play. The Billiardist brag of his one.

A thrill of de. light in its ve. ry name, A jock y gabble of next rac ing day.

* The upper line in the accompaniment may be omitted if thought proper, as the remaining line will be found sufficient.
joy in its simplest sound: It lends new strength to our cowards are fearing a fall; But give us the dash of a Yacht-man discourse of the Blue. The patrons of Rack et may rall:

hardy race, And its pleasures are never tame. Then strong "home strike" And we laugh such folly to shame: Take feast on its joys, Whilst Cricket its lovers in flame. Cro.

rall:

here's to the bat, the ball, and the base, Hurrah for our National Game.
all other sports and do what you like. But leave us our National Game.
quef's very well for young ladies and boys. But give us the National Game.
CHORUS.

Then hur-rah for our Na-tion-al Game, hurrah, Here's a

 Tempo di marcia.

cheer for its well-earned fame,

Success to it ev-er, Hur-

Success to it ev-er, Hur.
4.

Now toss for the innings, the bases are down
Outsiders go into the field.
The scorer with tallies successes will crown,
As each striker "the willow" doth wield.
The Captains assign each player his place,
The Umpire his rulings will name,
To all their decisions submit with good grace
As required by our National Game.

Chorus: Hurrah &c.

5.

And thus 'tis in life, each one has a post,
Assigned by the Captain of all,
While the great Umpire "Conscience" is guiding the host.
Take heed that we list to his call.
May no "base play" be ours, may our record be bright
With no foul deeds, our "clean score" to shame
Let us play life's game nobly, respecting the right
As we do in our National Game.

Chorus: Hurrah &c.