

THE
BLUE BELL OF SCOTLAND

A Favorite Scotch Ballad

Sung by M^{rs} OLDMIXON in ST. DAVID'S DAY.

Philadelphia Printed & Sold by G: Willig N^o 185 Market St.

A musical score for a vocal and piano piece. The top staff is a vocal line in treble clef, and the bottom staff is a piano accompaniment in bass clef. Both staves are in 2/4 time and B-flat major. The tempo is marked 'Andante'. The vocal line features a melody with a repeat sign and a fermata. The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern. The lyrics 'Ah where and ah where is your' are written below the vocal staff.

Highland Laddie gone He's gone to fight the wars, to red-refs his countrys wrong, and 'tis oh in my heart I wish him safe at home

Oh where and oh where, does your Highland Laddie dwell,
He dwells in merry Scotland at the sign of the Blue Bell.

And tis oh in my heart, I love my Laddie well.

In what Cloaths In what Cloaths is your Highland Laddie clad
His Bonnet of the Saxon green, and his Waistcoat of the Plaid

And tis oh in my heart, I love my Bonny Lad.

What wou'd you do if your Highland Lad should die;
The Bagpipes shou'd play over him and I'd sit me down and Cry

And 'tis oh in my heart, I wish he may not die.
