Tittle, Tattle, Tattle Tale.

(Shame On You.)

Words and Music by HERBERT INGRAHAM.

Valse moderato.

[last musical notation]

Last bell is ringing, the Soon school will call and that

[choral notation]

children are singing, The roll soon the teacher will call;
bad Johnnie Hall, Is just fixing a tack on a chair;

[Copyright information]

Copyright 1908 by Maurice Shapiro, Broadway & 39th St., New York.
International Copyright Secured.
All Rights Reserved.
Mag-gie Wright, present, and Tom-my Hite, pres-ent; Now, where were you Mon-day, John Teach-er came in and sat down with a grin, But got up with a hor ri ble

Hall? Hall?

"I had a tooth-ache, an aw-ful bad tooth-ache And stare.

"Win-nie, said teach-er, "Do you know the creat-ure, Who

Ma made me stay home from school.

Said, Win-nie Nye: "Teach-er, did this, while I was a way?"

"Yes, John-nie Hall, pulled it

John told a lie, He went fish-ing in Moo ney's pool!

out of the wall; Wished'twere long er, I heard him say."
CHORUS.

Tattle, Tattle, Tattle Tale, Shame, shame, shame;

Tattle, Tattle, Tattle Tale, That's your name;

Always been the teacher's pet, Never kept a secret yet, Tattle, Tattle, Tattle Tale, Shame on you... you...