FOR OLD GLORY
(UNCLE SAM, WE ARE PREPARING)
OFFICIAL MARCH SONG (ONE STEP)

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE CHIEF SCOUTS

ADMIRAL GEORGE DEWEY
FIRST CHIEF NAVAL SCOUT

WORDS & MUSIC BY WALTER IRVING

GENERAL GEORGE BARNETT
THE CHIEF MARINE SCOUT

AMERICAN JUNIOR NAVAL AND MARINE SCOUT (INC)

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE OFFICES
51 CHAMBERS ST. N.Y. CITY

WARNING This Copy Is Sold For 25¢ (NOT FREE) By AMERICAN JUNIOR NAVAL & MARINE SCOUTS With Which to Purchase Tobacco for the Sailors Marines & Soldiers in France. Donations Exceeding Price of Song May Be Sent To General Daniel M. Bedell, National Treasurer 51 Chambers St. New York

E. T. Fellers N.Y.

For Old Glory

(Uncle Sam, We Are Preparing)

By WALTER IRVING.

Piano

f

To be a Jun-ior Na-val Ma-rine Scout, Live an up right man-ly Boys join the Jun-ior Na-val Ma-rine Scout, It's a move-ment that calls to life Do a good turn day by day be-lieve in what your par-ents say, Help you Through the for-est, o'er the hills, On the wat-er with its thrills, Preoth-ers in this sad old world of strife You are taught loy-al-ty to God and pares a boy for what he cares to do He is taught it's a Scouts sa-cred

Coun-try And trained mor-al-ly to go life's way All the boys of this du-ty To be rea-dy for the Pres-i-dent's call A-mer-i-ca will Copyright 1917 by Walter Irving, New York City.

glo - ri - ous move-ment ___ Will hold up their heads and proud - ly say. ___
cher-ish your de - vo - tion ___ For you will do your du - ty, that's all. ___

Chorus.

Un-cle Sam, ___ we are pre - par - ing ___ Un-cle Sam, we'll soon be through ___ p-f

___ We can hear ___ the Na-tion call-ing ___ To pro-tect our homes and you ___ Soon we'll be ___ in line of march-ing ___ There to an-swer to your call ___ Ev-ry boy with gun in hand, Will_march at your com-mand, For Old Glo-ry and you, Un-cle Sam. ___ Un-cle Sam. ___

1 2

fz

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS.
HEADQUARTERS 5TH REGIMENT.
EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

France, August 21, 1917.

Editor, New York Sun,
New York City, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

In behalf of the men of the 5th Regiment of Marines I wish to extend to you our heartiest thanks for the generous quantity of cigarettes which you so kindly sent to us here in France where they are so much needed; for, although there is French tobacco to be had, it is not at all to our liking.

In our few leisure moments, when we relax and think of home, to be able to smoke an American cigarette is a real delight. We have come

Very truly yours,

C. A. Doyen

Colonel, U.S.M.C., Commanding