Barney Carney promised he'd be true to Molly O. The day he went away to war about a year ago;
In every note that started off with 'Molly, dear, I'm coming home to you' He didn't say what

Barney wrote he called her 'March-er-ie'; She read the name and said with shame, 'this week or day, nor did he say what year, And Molly O, said, 'wurr-rawe, it's isn't meant for me.' All the neighbors noticed there were tears-drops in her all a joke I fear.' People said he'd have to wait until the ships come

And when they asked her how was Barney, she'd begin to cry:
back; And Molly said, "why wait for them, why don't he take a hack?"

Chorus

"My Barney lies over the ocean, My Barney lies over the sea; Sure he said he went to war to help the women, And I think he's helped himself to two or three; Now he's got a little girl in Belgium, and one in Paris; And I know the little things he tells 'em, when they're on his knee, Sure my Barney lies over the ocean, Just the way he lied to me!"

"My men!"
