of the District Court of the United States for the South District of New York.
Let us love one another not long may we stay in this bleak world of mourning some droop while tis day others fade in their noon and few linger till eve oh! there breaks not a heart but leaves some one to grieve and the fondest the fairest the truest that meet have still found the need to for

Con espression A tempo give and forget then oh! the hope that we nourish dye away let us love one another as long as we stay as long as we stay as long as we stay stay let us love one another as long as we stay

Loco
Then let's love one another midst sorrows the worst unaltered and fond as we loved at first.

Tho' the false wing of pleasure may change and forsake
And the bright urn of wealth into particles break.

There are some sweet affections that wealth cannot buy That cling but still closer when sorrow draws nigh
And remain with us yet though all else pass away Then let's love one another as long as we stay
