GENTLY DOWN THE STREAM OF TIME

WORDS & MUSIC

MAJ. J. BARTON

Published by J. S. White & Co.

MARSHALL, MICH.

GUITAR.

Philadelphia. F. A. NORTH & CO.

SONG.

Cleveland.

S. BRAINARD'S SONS.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1879 by J. S. White & Co. at the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington, D.C.
GENTLY DOWN THE STREAM OF TIME.

WORDS & MUSIC BY MAJ. J. BARTON.

MODERATO.

VOICE.

PIANO.

\textit{ritard.}

Ent. according to Act of Congress A.D. 1869 by J.S. White & Co., in the Clerks Office of the Eastern District Court of Michigan.
1. Gently down the stream of time, Floats our bark toward the sea,
2. Vonder on the golden shore, Forms unseen are chanting low,

Sweetly peals the evening chime, Hear it
Strains we loved in days of yore, Mem-o-

Echo... wild and free, Friends have gone, ties have been broken...
Ries of... long ago, Voices now are hushed for ever...

Fears and doubts and hopes sublime, Careless Tears and flowers strew their graves, And this words tho' idly spoken... Lies sleeping 'neath the sea of time, Careless mighty rushing river..... Buries all beneath its wave. And this words tho' idly spoken... Lies sleeping 'neath the sea of time......... mighty rushing river..... Buries all beneath its wave.........

CHORUS.
Il Canto marcato.

AIR.

Gently down........ the stream of Time.......... Floats our bark... toward the sea... Sweet-ly peals... the ev'ning

Floats our bark toward the sea. Sweet-ly peals

Floats our bark toward the sea. Sweet-ly peals chime... Hear its echo... wild and free... the evening chime, echo, wild and free.

the evening chime, echo, wild and free.