LEND A HAND TO ONE ANOTHER.

Words and Music by FRED. WILSON.

Lend a hand to one an-oth-er, In the race for hon-or's crown;
Lend a hand to one an-oth-er, In the dai-ly toil of life,
Lend a hand to one an-oth-er, Where ma-li-cious tongue hath thrown,
Lend a hand to one an-oth-er, Be not first to tear it down.

Should it fall up-on your brother, Let us help him in the strife.
Should we meet a weak-er brother, Be not first to cast the stone.

Entered according to act of Congress A.D. 1856 by Balmer & Weber in the Clerk's office of U.S. Dist. Court for the East Dist. of Mo.
Lend a hand to all I say,
In their sunshine or their sorrow,
There are none so rich but may,
In their turn be forced to borrow,
Come a-drift on shame or sorrow,

Then the prize we've lost to-day,
May become our own to-morrow.
And the poor man's lot to-day,
May become our own to-morrow.
And the best man here to-day,
May become the worst to-morrow.

Lend a hand, Lend a hand, Lend a hand to one another
In the daily toil of life, Should we meet a weaker brother,

Let us help him in the strife.

ad lib:

In the daily toil of life, Should we meet a weaker brother,

Let us help him in the strife.
