Our marriage bells are ringing, What a glorious peal to care I for the world's frowns, With the loved one by my me, The present hour is bringing Sweet joy and ecstasy For, through its ups and downs, We'll breast life's stormy sky; For she, whom I have loved so long, Loved dearly as my tide; And though the current bears us on From all that's bright in life, Will give me ere the hour has gone, The right to call her life, My love will ever be as strong As when I call'd her wife, my wife, my wife, Our marriage bells are ringing, What a glorious peal to me, The present hour is brimming o'er With joy and ecstasy. Come, my darling, come and haste to me, Do not tarry, love. I wait for thee. Dost thou hear the wedding bells? Joyous peals they ring for thee. What welcome sounds their music tells, I fondly wait for thee!
