MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA.

Written in honor of Sherman's famous march from "Atlanta to the Sea."

Tempo di Marcia.

Words and Music by Henry C. Work.

1. Bring the good old bugle, boys, we'll
2. How the darkeys shouted when they
3. Yes, and there were Union men who
4. Sherman's dashing Yankee boys will
5. So we made a thoroughfare for sing another song—

heard the joyful sound!
weeped with joyful tears,
never reach the coast!
Freedom and her train,

Sing it with a spirit that will
How the turkeys gobbled which our
When they saw the hon'ry flag they
So the saucy rebels said, and Sixty miles in latitude—three 15,755—3.

Copyrighted MDCCLXV, by Root & Cadby.

Secure The Latest Success.
"Thou art ever in my thoughts,"

By Chas. K. Harris,
Author of "After the Ball," "Kiss and let's make up," Etc.

Price, 50 cts.
start the world along—
commit a errant found!
commissions had not seen for years;
twast a handsome boast;
he had not been praised;
there was no man;

Sing it as we used to sing it,
How the sweet potatoes even Hardly could they be restrained from Had they not forgot, a last to Treason fled before us, for re-

fifty thousand strong,
start ed from the ground,
breaking forth in cheers,
resistance was in vain,

While we were marching through Georgia.
While we were marching through Georgia.
While we were marching through Georgia.
While we were marching through Georgia.

CHORUS.

Hurrah! Hurrah! we bring the jubilee! Hurrah! Hurrah! we bring the jubilee!

Hurrah! Hurrah! we bring the jubilee! Hurrah! Hurrah! we bring the jubilee!
flag that makes you free! So we sang the chorus from Atlanta to the sea.

flag that makes you free! So we sang the chorus from Atlanta to the sea.

Marching Through Georgia.