"Bye Bye Dearie."

Words by ANDREW B. STERLING....

Music by HARRY VON TILZER....

Moderato. poco rall.

I must say Good-bye, dear-ie don't you sigh,
Dear-ie down the lane, we will meet a-gain,

Brush those tears a-way, don't be sad to-day,
As in days of yore, by the school-house door,

I'll come back to you, with a heart so true,
Where you whisp'cred low, in the long ago,
Sweet-heart dry those eyes of bonnie blue,
Sweet-est words of all "I love you so?"

Say you'll al-ways think of me, when I'm far a-cross the sea,
Thro' the mead-ows we will roam, soft-ly hum-ming "Home Sweet Home;"

Tempo di Marcia.

Bye-bye dear, it breaks my heart to go.
Bye-bye dear, one kiss, then I must go.
Bye-bye dearie, when your heart grows weary,

Dream of me, dearie and I'll dream of thee;

Don't be sighing, Sweet-heart stop your crying,

Bye-bye dearie don't grow weary, I'll be true. true.
