Harry Von Tilzer's Great Waltz Song Hit

On a Sunday Afternoon

Words by Andrew B. Sterling

Music by Harry Von Tilzer

Sung with great success by Joe, Myra & Buster Keaton, Comedians.

Harry Von Tilzer Music Publishing Co.
42 West 28th Street, New York City.
On a Sunday Afternoon.

Words by
ANDREW B. STERLING.

Music by
HARRY VON TILZER.

Tempo di Valse.

1. There's a day, we feel gay.
2. Coming home, starry dome.

If the weather's fine, with a soft moon shine Ev'ry lover's lad feels so glad, if the sun does shine. In his kiss, oh what bliss, oh what joy divine. "Good-night best, he is dressed, and with smiling face. He Joe" Good-night Flo, don't forget now dear. Next goes with his Pearly his own little girl to some nice place. Sunday at two, I'll be waiting for you on the old Iron Pier."

CHORUS.

On a Sunday afternoon In the merry month of June

On a Sunday Afternoon
— Take a trip up the Hudson or down the bay, Take a trolley to

Coney or Rockaway, On a Sunday afternoon You can see the lover's spoon, They work hard on Monday But one day that's fun day is Sunday afternoon On a noon

On a Sunday Afternoon