I'm Looking for an Irish Husband

CHARLES FROHMAN
PRESENTS

DONALD BRIAN IN THE MARRIAGE MARKET

LYRIC BY M.E. ROURKE
MUSIC BY
JEROME D. KERN

BOYS (Whistling Song)
Words by Edwin Burch and M.E. Rourke
Music by Edwin Burch

The Futurist Twirl
Words by Edwin Burch and M.E. Rourke
Music by Edwin Burch

The Mendocino Stroll
Words and Music by Donald Brian

A Little Bit Of Silk
I'm Looking, For An Irish Husband
I've Got Money In The Bank

T.B. HARMS & FRANCIS, DAY & HUNTER
NEW YORK
An Irish Husband.

Words by
M. E. Rourke.

Music by Jerome D. Kern.

Tempo di Marcia

VOICE

Piano.

Kitty Carey was from Kitty Carey straight from

Tipperary, And a sweet colleen was she!
Tipperary, Said she really didn't care,

On an ocean liner bound for Ellis Island, Kitty
If the man she married was a Doyle or Murphy, Pat Me
sailed across the sea,
Cann or Mike O'Hare,
She had searched thro' Still she felt quite

Ireland but the kind of husband that she wanted was not certain and was sure of one thing, He must be an Irish there. So to the customs officer, She answered when he man, Then said the customs officer, "I'm just the man you asked, "Have you anything important to declare?" Why yes, I'm want, For I'm Aloysius Patrick Mc Cann. And you are Refrain. Slowly.

looking for an Irish husband, the kind old

Irish land grows. With a light blue eye, And a green necktie, And a saucy turn up nose.

For a girl from Tipperary Who wants to change her name from Carey. Has to take a trip, on board a ship for the far off U. S. A.

An Irish Husband. 4

For all the finest men in Ireland are in America today! I'm day!
The Maurice Tango
By Silvio Hein.

For sale by all dealers.