Molto moderato

All lanes must reach a turning, there's no discerning what time will bring.

Hearts know no rhyme nor reason,

They change like wind and season.
Cold days— of winter die, dear,— With their good-bye, dear—

The swallows sing. Ev-'ry-thing comes to him, who but waits, re-mem-ber, Ice al-ways melts in Spring.

Refrain

I am with you Wander-ing through Mem-ory Lane;

Living the years, Laughter and tears, over a-gain.

I am dream-ing yet of the night we
