3.

And where is that band, who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country, shall leave us no more,
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps pollution;
No refuge could save the hireling and slave,
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave
And the star spangled banner, in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

4.

O! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand,
Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation,
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that has made and preserv'd us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause if is just,
And this be our motto, In God is our trust;
And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.
