The New "HAIL COLUMBIA!"

Miss Adah Bloomfield.

In March Time.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both are in 3/4 time. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The upper staff contains a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the lower staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment.

The second system continues the piece. It features more complex rhythmic patterns in the upper staff, including triplets and sixteenth-note runs. The lower staff continues with a steady accompaniment. A rall. (rallentando) instruction is placed above the lower staff towards the end of the system.

The third system is marked a tempo. The upper staff features a melodic line with accents and slurs. The lower staff continues with a consistent accompaniment pattern.

The fourth system concludes the piece. It features a final melodic flourish in the upper staff and a concluding accompaniment in the lower staff.

Hark, hark! the wel - come cry is sound-ing All o - ver and o - ver ev' - ry land! And hearts long crush'd are wild-ly bounding To come to this hap-py West-ern land. Our Homes and Arms a - like are o - pen, And peace and plenty not de - nied; We're free and in-de - pend-ent

spo - ken, Our Star - - ry Ban - ner is our pride.

2.

Far, far o'er ev'ry ocean bounding,
 America's commerce may be seen,
 And hearty praises, too, are sounding
 From ev'ry Nation, King and Queen!
 Thro' England our Gen'ral has been feted,
 And the good-will of the people felt;
 A stir was ev'rywhere created,
 And "Hail Columbia" hearts did melt. (Chorus.)

3.

Let ev'ry heart throughout the Nation
 A loyal, loving tribute pour,
 And offer public adulation
 To the Deity whose name we all adore;
 If a foe should come to fight us,
 America's power would be seen, —
 We'd fly to fight for "Hail Columbia,"
 Our Banner and Liberty's Queen! (Chorus.)

CHORUS.

Then, "Hail Co - lum - bi - a!" "Hail Co -

- lum - bi - a!" The pride of each pa - triot of A -

- mer - i - ca! "Hail Co - lum - bi - a!" "Hail Co -

- lum - bi - a!" A - merica's Ban - ner and Lib - er - ty's Queen.
