ELECTION THE PEOPLE'S RIGHT

Written and Composed by John J. Hawkins

March 1801

2
For Government and order's sake,
And Laws important sections,
We should support and pleasure take
In frequent Free Elections.

3
Our Agricult'ral int'rest, Marts,
And Mercantile connections,
With Manufactures, Science, Arts,
Must thrive by free Elections.

4
To thwart the schemes of Faction's bands,
Who for us plan subjections,
The cause of Liberty demands,
Our Votes at all Elections.

5
Should Enemies beset us round,
Of foreign fierce complexions,
Undaunted we will stand our ground,
Upheld by free Elections.

6
We'll never from our duty swerve,
Let who will make objections,
But while we live, unchanged preserve,
The Freedom of Elections.
