The old Constitution our fathers designed,
 Which Pinckney and Hamilton penned,
 Which Franklin, and Morris, and Washington signed,
 And handed us down to defend—
 We'll honor and treasure
 As onward we move,
 So shall we stand by
 The old charter we love. With Tilden & c.

We'll rally again by the Flag and the Law,
 And pledged to uphold them once more;
 Our well-beloved country—the land of our birth,
 All true loyal Freemen adore.
 The old Union Flag
 We are bound to defend,
 Every star on its field
 We'll stand by to the end! With Tilden & c.
