Dear old Teddy Roosevelt as we say good-bye to you,
Ev'ry little Yankee wants to grow up just as you,

I believe it's only just to give each man his due;
You stood for ev'ry thing that's good for Ev'ry youngster wants to do the things you used to do;
And Uncle Sam can thank the stars up-

Dear old Yankee land, The things you've done, and battles won, our grat-i-tude command.
The on our banner bright, That Teddy taught the boys who fought, the way to win the fight.

World was rich with you to carry on, The world is poorer now that you have gone.
Ev'ry member of the Roosevelt clan, Has proved you were the fath-er of a man.
Chorus

"T" stands for "Teddy," a great American; "E" stands for "Every"

Ev'ry inch a man; "D" stands for "Doctrines," The doctrines that you taught; The other "D" for "DENTITY," For you were of that sort. "Y" stands for "Yes-ter-day," that passed away too soon; When you bade the world goodbye. But your soul is with us yet, and the
