Oh! the lone starry hours give me love When still is the beautiful night When the round laughing moon I see love Peep through the clouds silver white When no winds through the low woods sweep love And I gaze on some bright rising star When the world is in dream and sleep love, Oh! wake while I touch my Gui-tar.

2

Till the red rosy morn grows bright, love,
 Far away o'er the distant sea;
 Till the stars cease their gentle light, love,
 Will I wait for a welcome from thee.
 And oh! if that pleasure is thine love,
 We will wander together afar;
 My heart shall be thine, thine, mine love,
 Then wake, while I touch my Guitar.

CHORUS. And oh! if that pleasure &c.
