GENTLY DOWN THE STREAM.

Words & Music

by NELSON KNEASS.

MODERATO.

Down by the river our log hut stands, Where father and mother once dwelt; And the old door latch that was worn by our hands, And the church where in prayer we knelt.

Years, years have pass'd since that happy time, And the river is rolling a-- long; And the rip--ling sound on the mos--sy bank, Is singing the same old song.

CHORUS.

1st VOICE. Row, row, row your boat, gent...ly down the stream,

2^d VOICE. Row, row, row your boat, gent..ly down the stream,

BASS. Row, row, row your boat, gent..ly down the stream,

PIANO.

Gently down the stream.

All that's past is gone, you know, the fu-ture's but a dream. Row, row,

All that's past is gone, you know, the fu-ture's but a dream. Row, row,

All that's past is gone, you know, the fu-ture's but a dream. Row, row,

Gently down the stream.

The musical score consists of three vocal parts and a piano accompaniment. The vocal parts are arranged in three staves, each with the lyrics "gent--ly down the stream." written below the notes. The piano accompaniment is shown in two systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The music is in a simple, folk-like style with a clear melody and accompaniment.

There stands the tree that we used to climb,
 And the mill with its rolling din;
 And the old wharf boat, there it used to float,
 Where the school boys used to swim.
 Still the old hut is standing there,
 And the river is rolling along;
 And the birds and the bees, the blossoms, the trees,
 Are singing the same old song. CHORUS.

Gently down the stream.
