

The DEATH of

Poor Cock Robin

Composed and Sung <sup>by</sup> Master WALSH of DRURY LANE THEATRE

Price 25 Cents

Printed and Sold at B: Carr's Musical Repository Philadelphia, J: Carr's Baltimore and J: Hewitt's New York

Larghetto

Here

Here Here lies Cock Robin dead and cold his end this song will

Moderato

from un-fold who kill'd poor Cock Ro - - bin

Allegro

I find the sparrow with my bow and arrow I kill'd Cock Robin

Larghetto

I kill'd Cock Robin who caught his blood who caught his blood

The DEATH of
Poor Cock Robin

Composed and Sung by Master WALSH of DRURY LANE THEATRE

Price 25 Cents

Printed and Sold at B: Carr's Musical Repository Philadelphia, J: Carr's Baltimore and J: Hewitt's New York

Larghetto

Here

Here Here lies Cock Robin dead and cold his end this song will

Moderato

soon unfold who kill'd poor Cock Robin

Allegro

I find the sparrow with my bow and arrow I kill'd Cock Robin

Larghetto

I kill'd Cock Robin who caught his blood who caught his blood

Spiritofe
I faid the fish with my little dish I faid the fish with my little dish

Larghetto
I caught his blood I caught his blood who'll dig his grave

Andantino
who'll dig his grave I faid the Owl with my spade and

Grave Resoluto
fhowl Wholl toll the bell I faid the Bull be - -

Grave
- - cause I can pull I'll toll the bell Bell bell bell

Larghetto
so poor Cock Robin Fare - - well Fare - - well

Fare - - well Fare - - well bell bell