The musical score consists of five systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are as follows:

What
Vir_gin or Shepherd of valley or grove will en_vy my in_nocent lays The song of the heart is the offspring of love when sung in my Corydons praise.
Oer brook and oer brake as he hies to the howr how lightfome my shep - -

... herd can trip and sure when of love he describes the soft power the honey dew drops from his lip, and sure when of love he describes the soft power the honey dew drops from his lip

How sweet is the primrose the violet how sweet
 And sweet is the eglantine breeze
 But Corydons kifs when by moonlight we meet
 To me is far sweeter than these
 I blush at his raptures I hear all his vows
 I sigh when I offer to speak
 And oh! with delight my fond bosom overflows
 When I feel the soft touch of his cheek.

3

Responsive and shrill be the notes from each spray
 Let the pipe thro the village resound
 Be smiles on each face O ye Shepherds to day
 And ring the Bells merrily round
 Your favors prepare my companions with speed
 Assist me my blushes to hide
 A twelvemonth ago on this day I agreed
 To be my lov'd Corydons bride.

For the Flute or Guittar

What Virgin or Shepherd in valley or grove will envy my innocent lays The song of the heart is the offspring of love when sung in my Corydons praise O'er brook and oer brake as he hies to the bow'r how light some my shep herd can trip and sure when of love he describes the soft power the honey dew drops from his lip and sure when of love he describes the soft power the honey dew drops from his lip.
