Affettuoso. Near

low ry Richmond Thames's pride, dwelt Ellen when her Fa-ther died one stormy night he left his way, and never more be held the day,

Two Infant boy's a-round her mo-ther clung and kindred grief the heart of Ellen wrung two Infant boy's a-round her mother clung and kindred grief the heart of Ellen wrung.

2^d verse.

Upon the ground her eyes she threw Primroses wild before her grew those gifts by bounteous nature spread she gathered to pro = cure them bread and thro' the hollow sounding streets by fewre - liev'd but jeer'd by many her mournfull cry she oft re =

-peats Primroses Primroses Primroses two bunches a penny two bunches a penny Prim - roses two bunches a penny.

3^d verse same Music as 2^d

Her pensive way I've seen her keek,
 With anxious step from door to door,
 And oft have turn'd aside to weep,
 And mourn'd 'that fortune made me poor,
 Ere early light adorns the sky,
 She roves the heath and vally penny,
 And twords proud LONDON hasties to cry, Primroses, &c.
