stray while sorrow marks my lone-ly way The sports of Spring unmov'd I view, a lone I sigh and think of you. Je pense à vous

Je pense à vous Je pense à vous Je pense à vous.

Ah! why in Absence do I mourn,
 Why vainly wish for your return;
 While transient pleasures you pursue,
 Alone I sigh and think of you,
 Je pense à vous.

Come then to cheer our native plain,
 Return to bless a constant swain,
 With Love reward a Love so true,
 Oh! think of him, who thinks of you,
 Je pense à vous.
