

In my Bower so bright,
Cavatina
Sung by Miss Laton

Composed by
C. E. HORN.

ALLEGRETTO SUAVAMENTE.

The first system of music is a piano introduction. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The music begins with a series of eighth and sixteenth notes in the treble staff, with dynamic markings of sf (sforzando) and accents. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The second system contains the first line of the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a single treble clef staff, and the piano accompaniment is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics "In my bow'r so bright as I lay last night, The" are written below the vocal staff. The piano part continues with accompaniment, including dynamic markings of f (forte) and sf.

The third system contains the second line of the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "moon through the fresh leaves stream.....ing, There were sounds i' the air, but I". The piano accompaniment continues with accompaniment, including dynamic markings of sf.

if I was think - ing or dream - - ing.

'Twas the sound of a lute, to a voice half mute, That sunk when I thought it was swell ing, And it came to my ears as if drown'd in the tears of the being whose woes it was tell - - - - ing: The tones were so sweet, I thought it most meet They should not be tones of glad.....ness, There are notes so fine, that were me-lo-dy mine, They should on....ly be-long to sad.....ness, They should on -- ly be-long to sad.....ness.

And the air crea-ture sung, and the wild lute rung, Like the bell when a che-rub is dy.....ing; I can tell no mo-,but the
