Allegretto.

Amoroso.

John.

One day, while working at my plough, Fal lal la la la la la la, I felt just here, I can't tell how, Fal lal la la la la la la, I turn'd my head round, just to see Who 'twas I heard, when there stood thee, Like Lentando. a tempo.

Wenus com'd out of the sea. Fal lal la la la la la la la.

Nan. La! John, you flatters now, I'm sure,
Fal lal,la la la la la la la
I look'd like I—and nothing more,
Fal lal,la &c.
I'd walk'd across a field or two,
And might look rosy—cheek'd or so—
Besides, I met a charming beau!
Fal lal la &c.

John. I knows the chap you mean, I trow,
Fal lal,la &c.
He's at the squire's just here below,
Fal lal la &c.
Be careful, Nan, take heed in time,
Here's honest John, just in his prime—
If you'd be his'n, he'd be thine—
Fal lal la &c.

Nan. Why, John, you're sartin well to do,
Fal lal,la &c.
You've got a cow, and pig or two,
Fal lal,la &c.
But mother's magpie talks to I,
She calls me angel of the sky!
John. Then mother's magpie tells a lie.
Fal lal,la &c.

Nan. Tell lies! the bird does no such thing,
Fal lal la &c.
For I'm an angel! John. Where's your wings?
Fal lal la &c.
Nan. That gemman, sir, all sweet perfume,
Said—"O you goddes from the moon!"
John. He meant a witch upon a broom.
Fal lal la &c.

Well time will show, and, John, you'll find, Fal lal la la la la la la la. You'd best take me, Nan, in the mind. Fal lal la la la la la la la. Wi'

John.

Done! Well married be, as sure as fun,

Nan.
