

M Helen's
Babies

She's every inch a Queen

Sung by

Price 4/-

MISS LILY DAMPIER

NICHOLSON & ASCHERBERG

MELBOURNE
45 & 47, COLLINS ST. E.

SYDNEY
317, GEORGE ST.

"SHE'S EVERY INCH A QUEEN"

SONG and DANCE.

Words and Music.
Introduction. Andante.

by FREDERIC G. CARNES.

p Legato.

ff

p cres.

ff

p

cres.

1. 2. Oh have you seen my Ru-by? She's just re-turned to town, With a hat and ostrich feather, and a new Centennial gown. She's rall. a tempo.

gay as a - ny lady, The fairest ever seen, With form and features unsurpass'd, She's a tempo.

ev'-ry inch a Queen, Oh! dont you envy me?

ff mf

She's true as steel can be. For Ruby is so gentle, and ff mf ff

rall. a tempo.

graceful in her mien, I know you'll all a-gree with me, She's ev'-ry inch a Queen.

cres e rall. a tempo p

"She's Every Inch a Queen."

DANCE.

2.

She went last month to welcome
 The great Centennial fair
 Of all the choice attractions
 She was the rarest there.
 Dressed out, in every color
 From Red, White, Blue to Green.
 The beaux all crowded round and said,
 "She's every inch a Queen"
 Oh, dont you envy me, &c.

3.

And now she's back forever
 She ne'er shall leave again
 My love is pledged unto her
 On land and on the main.
 I'm proud as Julius Caesar
 And happy as you've seen,
 For Ruby's mine, and mine alone,
 "And every inch a Queen"
 Oh, dont you envy me, &c.