

WANTED,
A GOVERNESS.

BY

JOHN PARRY.

Price 50 cts. nett.

BOSTON :
PUBLISHED BY OLIVER DITSON.
No. 135 WASHINGTON STREET.

WANTED A GOVERNESS.

Composed and Sung by John Parry.

Written by George Dubourg Esq:

TEMPO DI VALSE.

MAESTOSO.

ff pp

I know not a cure so good for the vapours, As reading the

"WANTS" which ap-pear in the Papers; There's wanted a HUSBAND, Or "WANTED a sample" Or "wanted to borrow!" But here's an ex - am - ple.

ad lib:

ad lib:

(parlante.)

"WANTED A GOVERNESS"

"WANTED A GOVERNESS"

pp

cres:

A GOVERNESS WANTED!

A

Ped: *

Not too fast.

GOVERNESS WANTED, well fitted to fill The post of tu - i - tion with competent skill, In a

Gentleman's family highly genteel, Where'tis hop'd that the Lady will try to conceal Any fanciful feelings or flights she may feel, For this gentleman's family's so VERY genteel, They're so VE - RY gen - teel! gra.....

Su - pe - rior attainments are quite in - dis - pen - sable, With ev' - ry thing too that's cor - rect and ostensible, Morals of pure unex - ceptionabili - ty; Manners well form'd and of

ad lib;
strictest gentili - ty! The Pupils are five - ages six to sixteen All as PROMISING girls, as colla voce.

(Slower.)
ever were seen: And besides, (tho' tis scarcely worth while to put THAT in) There are

ff VIVACE.

Two little Boys but THEY only learn Latin!

WANTED A GOVERNESS fitted to fill, The

ff VIVACE.

post of tuition with competent skill In a gentleman's fami - ly highly genteel, Where in Slower.

or - der that things may go "TOUJOURS TRANQUILLE" They SELDOM express themselves

a tempo.

QUITE as they feel, For this gentleman's fam'ly's so VE - RY genteel! They're so

VE - RY gen - teel!

gra Presto.

The

Lady must teach all the several branches, Where - into polite edu - cation, now launches; She's ex - pected to speak the FRENCH tongue like a native, And be to her pupils of all its points dative; I -

(parlante.)
TALIAN she must know (of course,) nor needs banish What - e - ver acquaintance she

(parlante.)
MAY have with SPANISH! Nor would there be harm in a tri - fle of GERMAN, In the Slower. VIVACE.

absence, (that is), of the master, HERR HERMANN! "WANTED A GO - VERNESS" ritardando. ff VIVACE.

fit - ted to fill The post of tu i tion with competent skill, In a gentleman's fam-i - ly highly gen-teel Where the La - dy will find by at - tention and zeal, That she'll scarcely have time to par - take of a meal, For this

a tempo.
gentleman's fam'ly's so ve - ry genteel, The're so VE - RY gen - teel!

RECITATIVO.
The Harp and the Pia - no,

(CELA VA SANS DIRE) With thorough bass, too, on the plan of LOGIER. In drawing in pencil and chalks and the tinting that's call'd O - RI - EN - TAL, She must not be stint in! She must paint upon Paper, on Sa - tin and Vel - vet, And if she knows Wax work she'll not need to shelve it. Dancing, (OF COURSE,) with the newest Gambades, The Po - lish Ma - zur - ka and best Gal - lo - pades! A - rithmetic, Histo - ry join'd with Chronology, Heraldry, Bota - ny, Writing, Concholo - gy,

pp trem:

Grammar and Sa - tin - stitch, Netting, Ge - o - graphy, As - tro - no - my, Use of the

pp

Globes and Cosmography! SLOWER. These are the PRINCIPAL matters (AU RESTE) Ad -

ff

dress, "J. Z. X. Q. V. EASY PLACE West?" As the ANDANTE. Salary's VERY MODERATE none need apply

p f

Who more on THAT point than on COMFORT rely; But, perhaps twere as well, to make matters shorter, To mention the terms, namely FIVE POUNDS A QUARTER!

CODA . VIVACE ASSAI.

WANTED A GOVERNESS well fit - ted to fill, The post of tu - i - tion with

com-petent skill Where 'tis wish'd that the Pupils should ne - ver be still, Nor the

GOVERNESS ei - ther, be she well or ill! "A GO - VER - NESS WAN - TED!" "WAN - TED A GO - VER - NESS!"

C. M. G. O. S. S. G. M.