

GUITAR EDITION

I WOULD LIKE TO CHANGE MY NAME

Written expressly for

Miss Caroline Ritchings

and sung by her with unbounded applause at all the

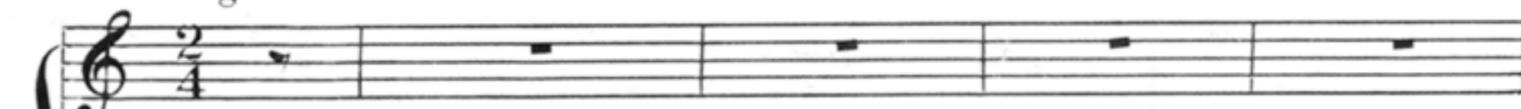

PRINCIPAL THEATERS

Published by H. Pilcher & Sons 91 Fourth St, St. Louis Mo.

Arrd by I.F. Lohlein.

Allegretto.

VOICE.

Allegretto.

GUITAR.

I would like to change my name, And share an - oth - ers home, With a heart that's kind and true, And one that would not roam; For my schooling days are

o ver, The books are laid a side; I've of - ten been a brides - maid, 'Tis time I was a bride, I've of - ten been a brides - maid 'Tis time I was a bride.

ad lib. ad lib. a Tempo.

2nd verse.

I should like to change my name, And settle down in life;

Here's a chance for some youngman, That's seeking for a wife: Per-

-haps you think I'm jes-ting, And mean not what I say; But if you think so Try me, You'll find I'll not say nay; But if you think so Try me You'll find I'll not say nay.

3rd verse.

Old maidshave of-ten told me, There's care in mar-ried life; But let them talk, I heed them not, I'm bound to be a wife; For my schooling days are o-ver! My books I've thrown a-side, I've

of-ten been a brides maid 'Tis time I was a bride, I've

of-ten been a brides maid 'Tis time I was a bride.

2nd verse.

I should like to change my name, And settle down in life;

Here's a chance for some youngman, That's seeking for a wife: Per-

-haps you think I'm jes-ting, And mean not what I say; But if you think so Try me, You'll find I'll not say nay; But if you think so Try me You'll find I'll not say nay.

3rd verse.

Old maidshave of-ten told me, There's care in mar-ried life; But

let them talk, I heed them not, I'm bound to be a wife; For my schooling days are o-ver! My books I've thrown a-side, I've

of-ten been a brides maid 'Tis time I was a bride, I've

of-ten been a brides maid 'Tis time I was a bride.