KATEY'S LETTER.

Andante con Espressione.

PIANO.

Och, girls dear, did you ever hear, I wrote my love a let-ter, And al - tho' he can-not read, sure I thought 'twas all the bet-ter. For why should he be puzzled with hard spelling in the mat-ter, When the maning was so plain that I love him faith-ful-ly. I love him faithful-ly, And he knows it, oh! he knows it, without one word from me. I wrote it, and I fold-ed it, and put a seal up - on it; 'Twas a seal al - most as big, As the crown of my best bon - net; For I would not have the Post - mas - ter make his re - marks up - on it, As I'd said in - side the let - ter, that I lov'd him faith - ful - ly. I love him faith - ful - ly, And be knows it, oh! he knows it, with-out one word from me. My heart was full but when I wrote, I dar'd not put the half in, The neighbors know I love him, and they're mighty fond of chaffing; So I dar'd not write his name out-side For fear they would be laughing, So I wrote "from lit - tle Kate to one whom she loves faith - ful - ly."

I love him faith-ful-ly, And he knows it, oh! he knows it, with-out one word from me.

Now girls, would you believe it, that Postman so consated
 No answer will he bring me, so long as I have waited;
 But may-be there may'nt be one, for the reason that I stated,
 That my love can neither read nor write, but he loves me faithfully.
 He loves me faithfully. He loves me faithfully;
 And I know wher'e'er my love is, that he is true to me.
