THE MISERIES OF SNEEZING.

OSSIAN E. DODGE.

Allegro Moderato.

1. I've
2. When
3. When

lots of trouble and pain through life, And ever am in hot water and strife! My first a ba-by in nurse's arms, I went to meeting and caused alarm, The next at seven, I went to school, To study to read and write by rule, I nose has got such a queer disease, I'm al-most dying for having to sneeze! And people were roused from slumb'ring ease, By hearing that pesky . . infant . . sneeze! And saw the children as thick as bees, But they scamper'd away when they heard me sneeze! And thus in trouble my life began, And now I am known as the sneez-ing man.

8. CHORUS.

Soprano.
Alto.
Tenor.
Bass.

And thus in trouble my life began, O pi-ty the nose of a sneezing man!

4. When
5. "I
6. The next my frolicking days came round, A beautiful dam-sel soon I found, But wish" cried I to my an-gel dear, "To tell of my love while kneel-ing here!" But dam-sel screamed and fell to the floor, In ag-o-ny wild her hair she tore! When as the maiden was just the cheese, She fainted away when she heard me sneeze! And tho' I was there on my bend-ed knees, It couldn't be done, for I had to sneeze! And turning I went like an au-tumn breeze Ske-dad-dling off with an-oth-er sneeze. And thus in trouble my life be-gan, And now I am known as the sneezing man.
