

Finnigan's

Hotel.

WORDS BY

MUSIC BY

Phil. Rossiter. H. F. Smith Jr.

Author of ROSALEEN, UNDER THE ROSEMARY GOLD, BLUE EYED LITTLE MAY, GOOD-BYE CASEY,
PADDY KELLY'S BAND, HOGAN'S TIN WEDDING PARTY,

Composer of. PRETTY ETHELINDA JANE, GOOD-BYE CASEY, HOGAN'S TIN WEDDING PARTY, THE ORPHAN'S HOPE,
THE PRAYER MY MOTHER TAUGHT ME. THE FACES
I'VE SEEN IN MY DREAMS.

FINNIGAN'S HOTEL.

Words by
PHIL. ROSSITER.

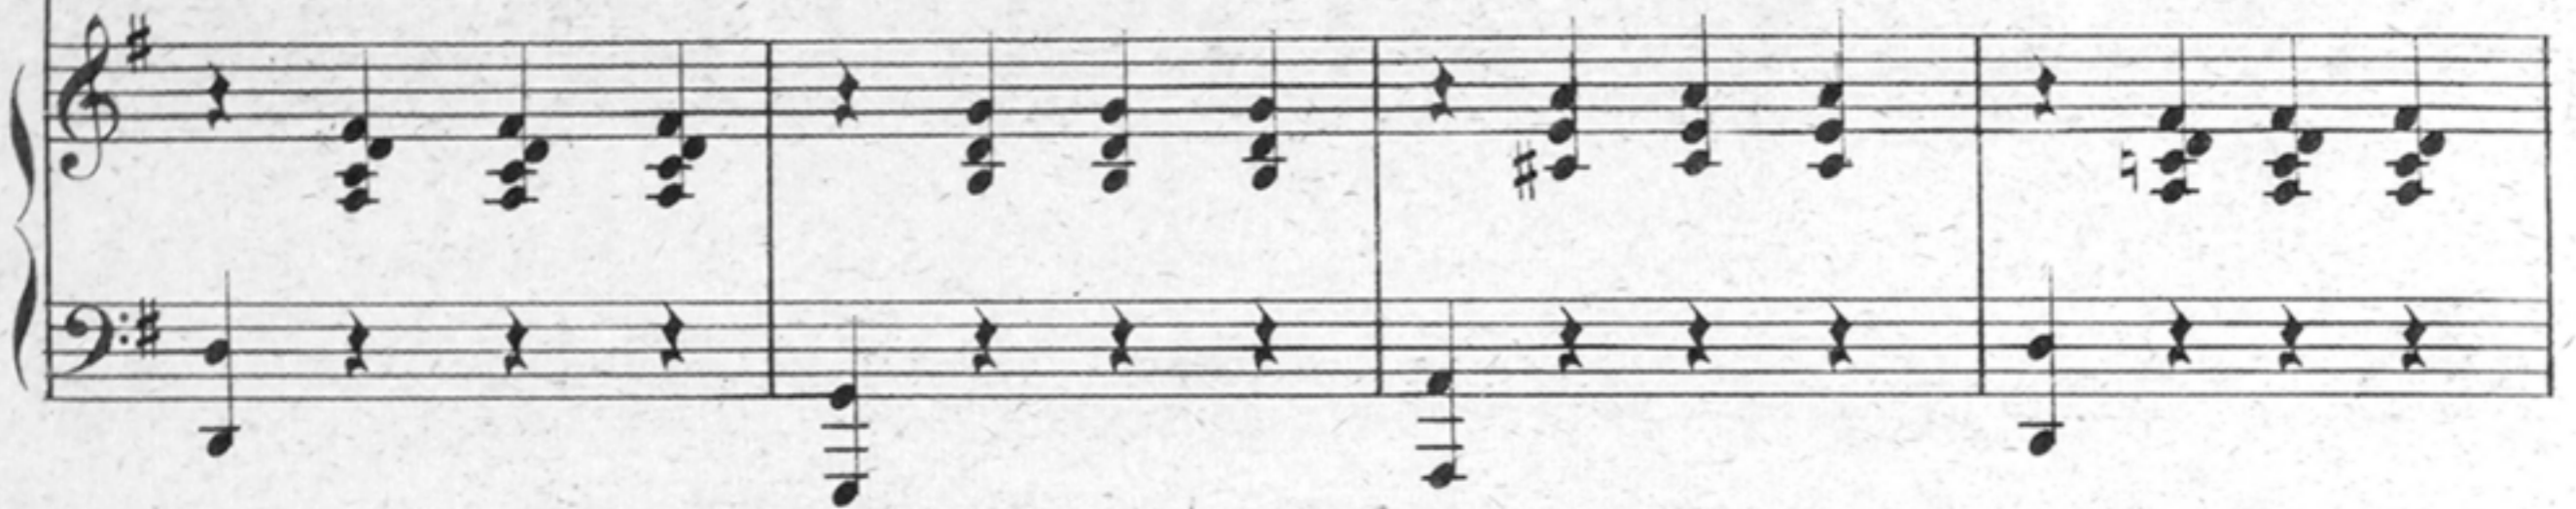

Music by
H. FORREST SMITH Jr.

ALLEGRO.

A - lon - zo Ted - dy Fin - ni - gan, an I - rish - man of fame, Was Ted was a might - y hap - py man, his heart with pride would beat, For Ted's ser - vants dressed in bright - est green stood wait - ing, in a row, Their Now if you ev - er take a trip a - cross to Er - in's Isle, Call born in Dub - lin where he was a cred - it to his name, He peo - ple took their hats off when they met him on the street; And boss was Bir - die Nan Mc.Fod from Cas - tle - bar, May - o, But on A - lon - zo Ted - dy and you'll find it worth your while; He had a lit - tle mon - ey saved which he in - ves - ted well; He when at four o' - clock the ser - vants rang the din - ner bell: The once while she was waltz - ing in with soup she slipped and fell, And keeps ei - gars, and la - ger beer, and but the best will sell. But bought a block on which he built an el - e - gant ho - tel.

 lo - cal snobs dropped in for grub at Fin - ni - gan's Ho - tel.
 burned the old - est board - er at Ted Fin - ni - gan's Ho - tel.
 you must pay board in ad - vance at Fin - ni - gan's Ho - tel.

CHORUS .

He kept a splen - did ta - ble, you could have flap - jacks and fish, Or car - a - mels, or pea - nuts, or clam chow - der if you'd wish, Pot -

- pie and snap - pers, devil - ed crabs, and scrap - ple helped to swell, The lux - ur - ies pro - vi - ded at Ted Fin - ni - gan's Ho - tel.

D.C. al Fine .