

A New Comic Song HOCK SHOP

OR IT'S OVER IN THE HOCK SHOP NOW

BY

G. B. BRIGHAM.

50 your
UNCLE
ISAAC.

Published by G. B. Brigham,

261 Wabash Ave.

CHICAGO

IT'S OVER IN THE "HOCK SHOP" NOW.

By G. B. BRIGHAM.

Allegretto.

1. At a ball the oth - er night, I was strict - ly "out of sight," In a
2. Gilli - gin had a goat, o - ver which he used to gloat, And.....
3. Be - - fore my moth - er died, for..... me she oft - en cried, And.....
4. In the past few years or more, I've com - posed songs by the score, On the
- 5 When.... I be - came of age, I..... went up - on the stage, To.....

suit that I had made for the oc - ca - sion;
fight - ing was old "Bill - ie's oc - cu - pa - tion;
prayed no harm would come to her dear boy;..
top - ics of the day I've al - ways writ - ten,
act a part out in this mim - ic life;....

And the dia - mond that I wore, I will
He... chewed up all the clothes, and....
Gave me mon - ey oft' when busted, her....
And ex - spect - ed all would take, but there's
And... if I'm not mis - taken, I put nev - er see it more, For we part - ed aft - er ver - y much per - sua - sion. From the bat - tered off his nose, And for dogs he had - n't any in - fat - u - a - tion. He jewels to me entrusted, And wished me ev - 'ry hap - pi - ness and joy. The some have made me shake, And oth - ers I have al - ways been so smit - ten. On this put a lit - tle "stake" in A wardrobe, then I took with me a wife. I.....

ball I strayed a - way, got to drink - ing so they say, When I a - woke this morn - ing I was roamed a - round the street, butt - ed ev - 'ry - thing he'd meet, On the butch - er and the milk - man had a last words that she said, as I knelt be - side her bed, Were, "Keep those treasures sa - cred, dear, for song I used to smile, when I picked it from the pile, It went the same as oth - ers that I mean to draw it mild, she was a Hebrew's child, And a cash - ier in her fa - ther's "help - out" broke. There was noth - ing else to do, so the suit and dia - mond, too, Had to "cinch," But his butt - ing days are o'er, and he's lost his taste for gore, For he's me, Thro' troub - le or thro' strife, keep them with you all your life," I..... had, I..... wrapped 'em up one day and took 'em over the way, And the store, Now much to my sur - prise, we walked home on the ties, Her pro -

CHORUS.

go to Sol - o - mon Ru - ben - stein's "in soak." They're o - ver in the "Hock shop" dy - ing in the pawn shop by the inch.
 did so, but at last my fate you'll see.
 part - ing I'll as - sure you made me sad.
 fes - sional as - pir - a - tions are no more. She's back.... in the "Hock shop"

Rit.

now, Your "Un - cle" has them I'll al - low; They'll not be ver - y long, for he'll now, Her "Pa - pa" has her I'll al - low; You bet she's there to stay, hand - ling

D. C. to Intro

sell them for a song, But they're o - ver in the "Hock shop" now.
 dia - monds ev - 'ry day, For she's o - ver in the "Hock shop" now.