HOW I GOT EVEN WITH O'GRADY.

Words and Music by THOMAS P. GETZ.

A - bout twelve months a - go, as My daugh - ters and my sons, and A week a - go to day, at a most of you now know, The ten I owed O' Gra - dy drove me wild;..... neigh - bors all with duns, Would touch him as he'd walk a - long the street..... pic - nic cross the bay, I put a lot of girls up - on his track.....

He'd ne - ver let me rest, and I think he done his best To I took his wife and child - ren, and ev - ery thing he had, And They made him buy Ice - cream that was made of but - ter - ine, And sep - a - rate me from my wife and child. So at last I went to tried to file a - claim a - gainst his feet. O' Gra - dy begged and plead - spent all the money he had in his sack. When the time came to go work, and my debts I did not shirk, And one fine day I paid O' Gra - dy ed, his prayers were all un - heed - ed, I'll track him ev - ery day that I'm a - home O' Gra - dy sob - ed and moaned He did' - nt have a - cent to pay his ten; He took it with a smile, while I with rage did live I'll make him sob and cry and when he comes to fare His wife and I did cry we'll see you bye and bile, And I swore that I'd get e - ven with him then.

 die He'll curse the day he struck me for the five.
 bye And I holler - ed as we left him stand - ing there.

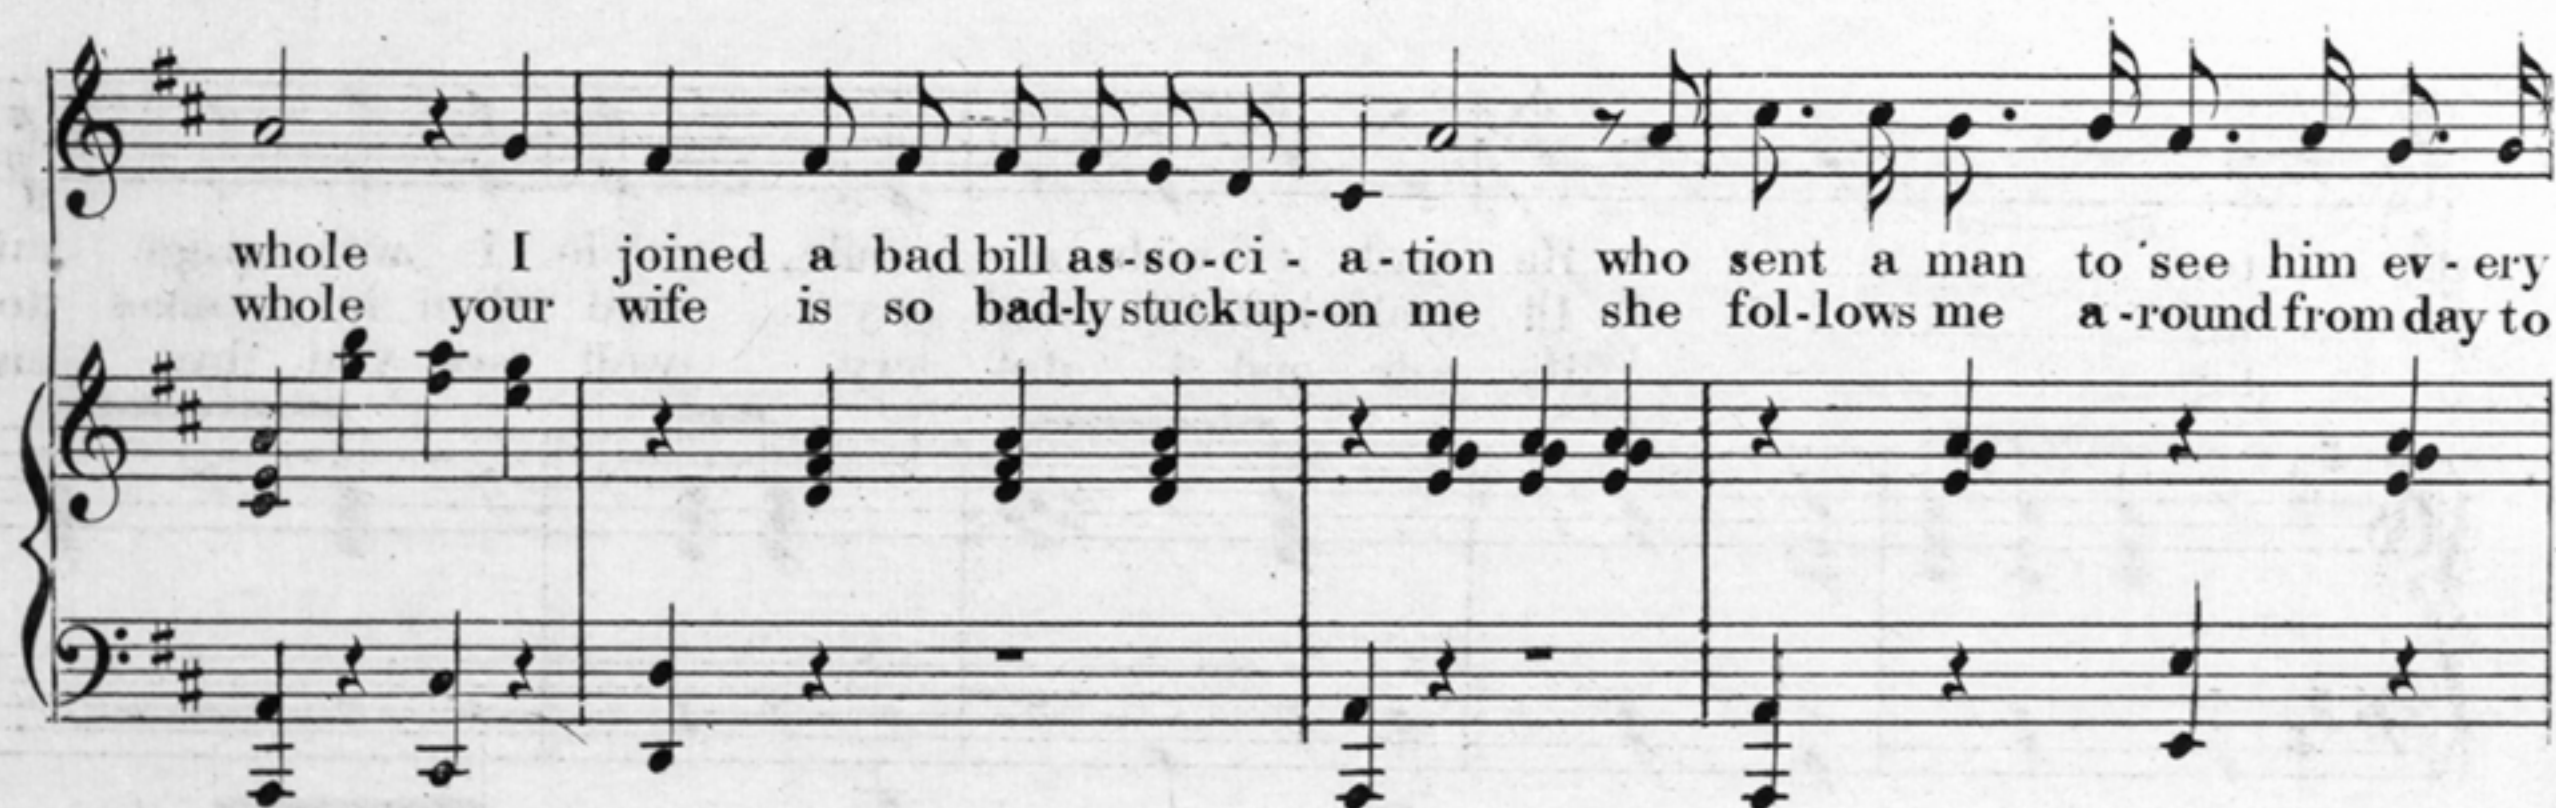

CHORUS.

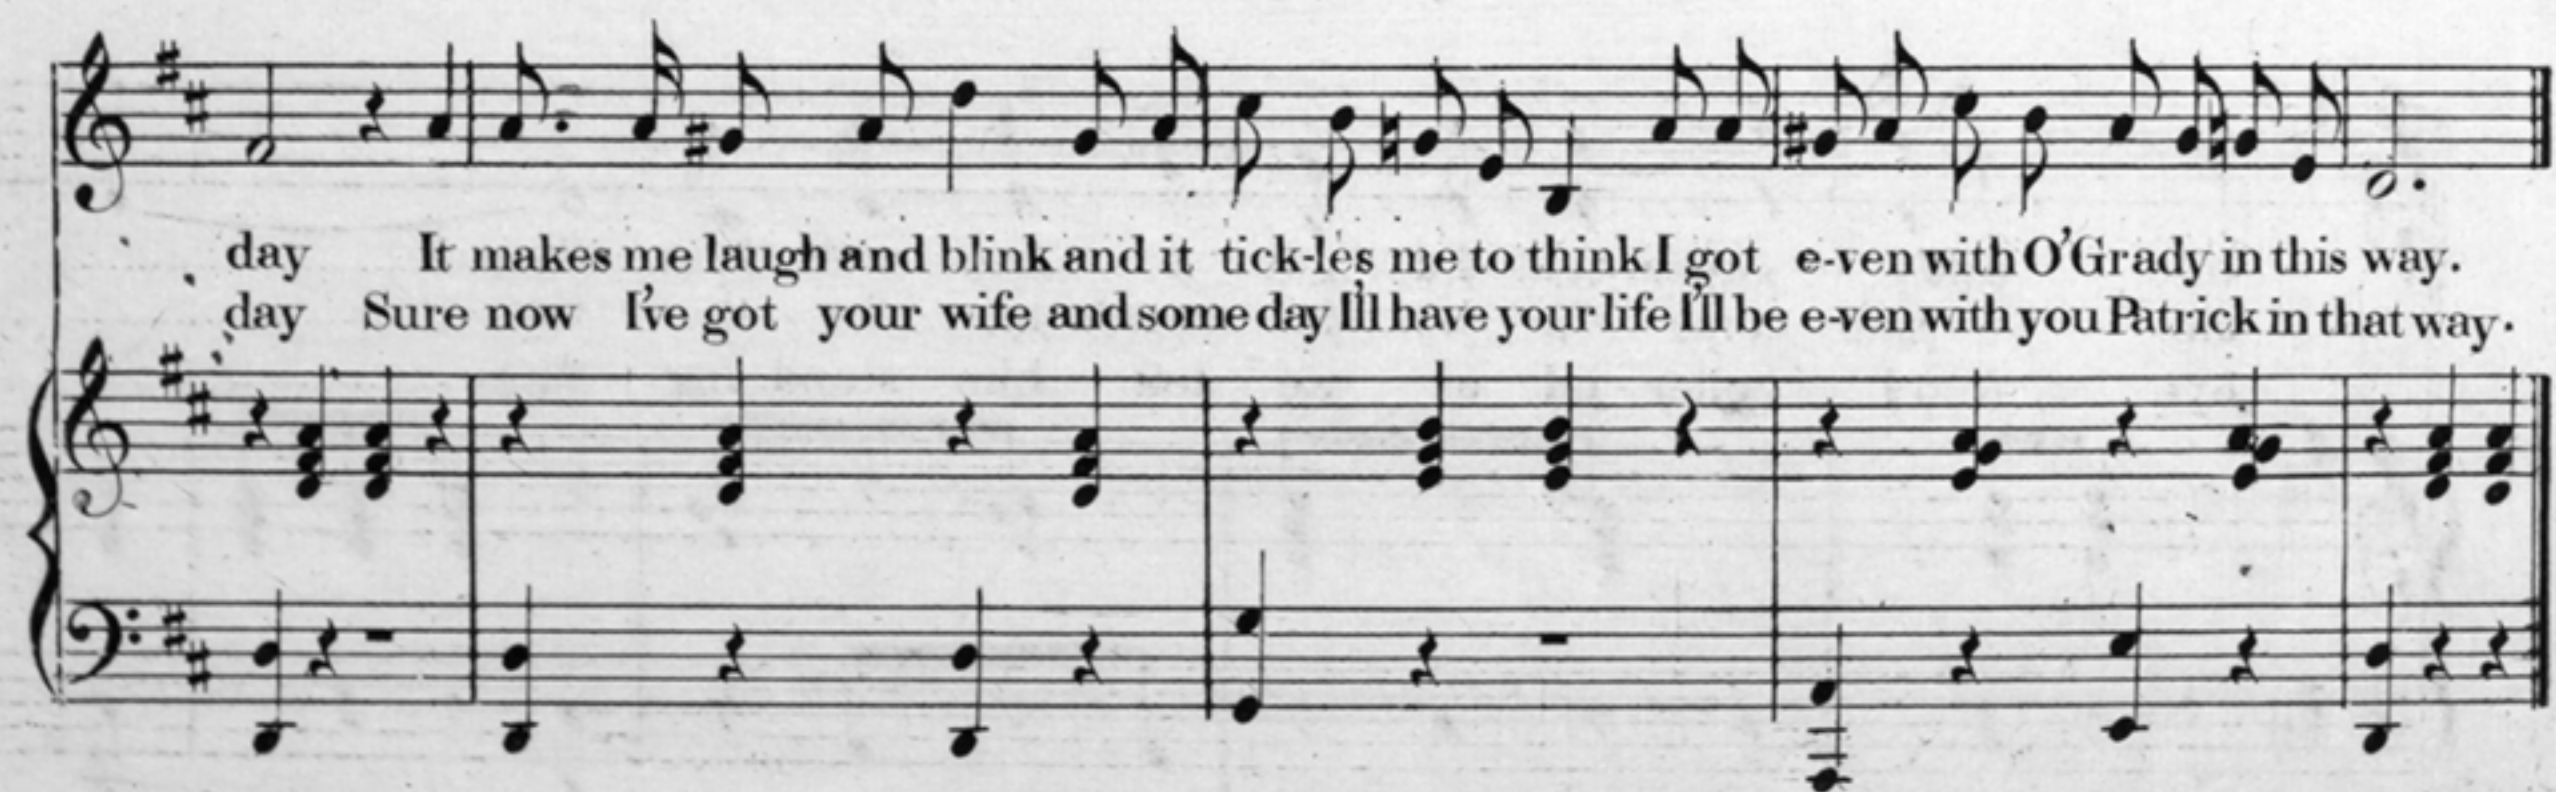

1st & 2nd So I lent five dol-lars to O' Gra - dy I made him think I owned him life and 3rd I lent you five dol-lars Pat O' Gra - dy I made you think I owned your life and soul, I'd stop him on the way to church on Sun-day and touch him for a part if not the soul, I'll fol - low you to church on Sun - day morn-ing and touch you for a part if not the whole I joined a bad bill as-so-ci - a - tion who sent a man to see him ev - ery whole your wife is so bad-ly stuck up-on me she fol-lows me a-round from day to day It makes me laugh and blink and it tick-les me to think I got e-ven with O'Grady in this way.

 day Sure now I've got your wife and some day I'll have your life I'll be e-ven with you Patrick in that way.
