THE TRAVELING MAN

A BIG HIT in the Successful Musical Farce,

THE TRAVELING MAN

As sung by THE AUTHOR.

Words and Music by

BOYLE WOOLFOLK

Author & Composer of The Musical Farce
"THE TRAVELING MAN"

THE GEO. B. JENNINGS CO.
CINCINNATI.
Dedicated to my friend Mr. H. H. Morton, Louisville, Ky.

The Traveling Man.

Words & Music by BOYLE WOOLFOLK.

Allegro.

is it keeps the hotels running now tell me is it has to get up early to catch a
Who register their names and often register a train

Who lugs around two heavy grips in all the snow and kick, rain? Now you start up in business and you

You may think a drummers life is dont know what to buy full of fun galore
Who is it comes a-

But is it fun to round and tells you just the line to try. It's the be dead broke in a village two by four.
CHORUS.

Trav'ling man it's the Trav'ling man, with a smile very bland And the always glad hand It's the Trav'ling man the girls all think him grand And they all have to hand it to the Trav'-ling man It's the man.

The T. M. S

D. S. Vamp.