Seeing Denver.

Composed by GUS BROHM.

Tempo di Valse.

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 3/4 time with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is placed at the beginning.

The vocal entry begins with a treble clef staff in 3/4 time. The lyrics are: "There's a ci - ty out west and it Just gaze to the right, says the". The piano accompaniment continues below, with a dynamic marking of p (piano) appearing in the second measure of the vocal line.

The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "out shines the rest, Where sun shines the whole year 'round speel - er in blue, The via-duct I'm show-ing to you". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and some melodic fragments in the right hand.

It's af-ter you leave you are led to be-lieve There's Now look up the street and a vis-ion you'll meet The on-ly one Den-ver town, With its air fresh and Brown Pal-ace stands right in view Up Fif-teenth we light breathe to your de-light, And wa-ter as clear as can go, from the loop you know, The Post Of- fice you can be Just jump on a car and say "ah! there you see As the Capi-tol you pass view it's beauti-ful green are," And take in the sights with me.

grass, For in Ci - ty Park soon you'll be.
