"AH! MAY THE RED ROSE LIVE ALWAY!"

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

Stephen C. Foster.

Not too fast.

Ah! may the red rose live al-way, To smile up-on earth and sky!

Entered according to Act of Congress the Year 1859 by F.D. Bentley in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Md.
Why should the beautiful ever weep! Why should the beautiful die!

Lending a charm to ev'ry ray That falls on her cheeks of light.

Giving the zephyr kiss for kiss, And nursing the dew-drop bright——

A tempo.
Ah! may the red rose live al-way, To smile up-on earth and sky!
2.

Long may the daisies dance the field,
Frolicking far and near!
Why should the innocent hide their heads?
Why should the innocent fear!
Spreading their petals in mute delight
When morn in its radiance breaks,
Keeping a floral festival
Till the night-loving primrose wakes—
Long may the daisies dance the field,
Frolicking far and near!
Why should the innocent hide their heads?
Why should the innocent fear!

3.

Lulled be the dirge in the cypress bough,
That tells of departed flowers!
Ah! that the butterfly's gilded wing
Fluttered in evergreen bowers!
Sad is my heart for the blighted plants—
Its pleasures are aye as brief—
They bloom at the young year's joyful call,
And fade with the autumn leaf:
Ah! may the red rose live alway,
To smile upon earth and sky!
Why should the beautiful ever weep?
Why should the beautiful die!
