1st: Far from my childhood's scenes, with weary steps I roam;

2nd: Where are those early hopes, that made my footsteps stray;

Laden with weight of care, a thousand miles from home;
Faded while summer bowers, are blooming on my way;

Old times return to me, Days of pleasure nights of glee;
Sweet song of birds I hear, Childhood's voices bright and clear;
While I'm beyond the sea a thousand miles from home.
All fail my soul to cheer a thousand miles from home.

A thousand miles from home.
A thousand miles from home.

a tempo.

Oh! how the heart will droop, a thousand miles from home.
