

TO COMMISSIONER THOMAS S. BRENNAN.

THE BLACK MARIA, O!

SUNG IN

—* EDWARD HARRIGAN'S NEW PLAY, *—

"MCNOONEY'S VISIT,"

At Harrigan's New Park Theatre, Broadway and 35th Street, New York.

WORDS BY

MUSIC BY

EDWARD HARRIGAN. DAVE BRAHAM.

4

NEW YORK:

Published by WM. A. POND & CO., 26 Union Square, Broadway, bet. 15th and 16th Streets.

CHICAGO MUSIC CO., 148-150 WABASH AVE., CHICAGO.

To Commissioner Thomas S. Brennan.

THE BLACK MARIA, O.

As sung in Edward Harrigan's New Play

"McNOONEY'S VISIT."

Words by EDWARD HARRIGAN.

Music by DAVE BRAHAM.

1. Oh
2. Oh
3. Oh
4. It's here we come in filth and rags, We snooz - ers sneak with tramp and bags, We're ev' - ry one in coun - ty jail, Must stand in line with cof - fee pail, Then my, oh my, when we're a - float, A - sail - ing on the Bel - vue boat, We there you'll find the tough - est gangs, Sweet La - dies too, with curls and bangs, They bound a - way for Blackwell's Isle, The sum - mer months to rest a - while.

all sit down in Roy - al style, To eat their hash on Blackwell's Isle.
chant and sing in hap - py style, All pals that's bound for Blackwell's Isle.
march a - long, in In - di - an file, And keep lock step on Blackwell's Isle.

There's high - way men and ten day bums, All drag'd from al - leys dark
 With picks and shov - els then off we go, To dig in quar - ries what It's fare - well Mol - ly and red - hair'd Mag, With Cork leg'd Dol - ly the Our Pri - son cells are cold and bleak, Their i - ron doors they courts and slums, From boose - ing kens and crook - ed drums, To slave - ry, oh, Take our ad - vise, both friend and foe, Keep squint - eyed hag They all hung out at the old Burnt Rag, And creek and shriek, Now if mis - for - - tune, boys you'd seek, Come ride in the Black Ma - ri - a, O. To day we sail to the out of the Black Ma - ri - a, O.

CHORUS.

 rode in the Black Ma - ri - a, O.
 ride in the Black Ma - ri - a, O.

coun - - ty jail, To eat our meat and mush - - y meal, There's ma - ny a man, that's out on bail, Who ought to be in the Ma - ri - a O. Symphony. Ending.