3. A merry, merry Christmas,
 To you, dear ladies all;
 Ev'ry old maid, ev'ry beauty,
 In a seal-skin or a shawl:
 Go marry, do not tarry,
 I tell you ev'ry one,
 Then hang the babies' stocking up,
 For Santa Claus has come.
 CHO.—Oh yes, I have a springing ball,
 Springing ball, a springing ball,
 Oh yes, I have a springing ball,
 For any baby dear.
 Then hang the babies' stocking up, etc.

4. Among the poor and lowly,
 This blessed Christmas day,
 Go ye mingle, money jingle,
 For to aid them on their way.
 More power to the dower
 You give to every one,
 Then hang the babies' stocking up,
 For Santa Claus has come.
 CHO.—Oh yes, I have a little doll,
 Little doll, little doll,
 Oh yes, I have a little doll
 For any baby dear.
 Then hang the babies' stocking up, etc.

5. 'Tis merry, merry Christmas,
 Oh, shout it with a will!
 In the country, in the city,
 From the mountain, from the hill.
 May blessings never lessen
 On each and every one,
 Then hang the babies' stocking up,
 For Santa Claus has come.
 CHO.—Oh yes, I have a bugle oh!
 Bugle oh! a bugle oh!
 Oh yes, I have a bugle oh!
 For any baby dear.
 Then hang the babies' stocking up, etc.
