I hear an echo clear, from over there, way over here.

I hear a strain, an old refrain, it's very plain.

A song is in the air, 'way over there and yet it's near.

I can just an-

I hear that old melody.

Like a message o-ver the sea.

Listen,

Other old melody.

That they're sing-ing o-ver the sea.

Listen,

you will hear it too, If your fancy car ries with me;

you will hear it too, If your fancy car ries with me;

"Give my regards to Broadway;
I can hear it plain as can be.
"Give my regards to Broadway;
I can hear it plain as can be.

CHORUS

The boys are over there,
But their hearts are over here;
For they left them behind, When they softly whispered, "Goodbye, dear."

A song

is in the air, Like a prayer that has a tear.
"Give my regards to Broadway;"
I can hear them sing over here.

The here...
