

"Atlanta's ours and fairly won."

SONG & CHORUS.

*"Brave Sherman! here, to many a soul,
These glorious words of thine,
"Atlanta's ours and fairly won,"
Come like a draught of wine,
The doubting spirit gains new faith,
And echoes back, "Right nobly done,
Atlanta's ours and fairly won."*

"ATLANTA'S OURS AND FAIRLY WON."

2.

The nation's heart beats quick to hear
 The double deadly blow,
 Striking at once the rebel armed
 And the secret traitor foe.
 Bright shines again the Northern sun,
 "Atlanta's ours, and fairly won!"

3.

Let this for ages be our cry,
 In battle or in civil strife,
 Whether with pen, or word, or sword,
 We fight the fight of life.
 We'll hand it down from sire to son,
 "The victory's ours, and fairly won!"
