

"How are you Exempt?
I 'spose you are all right.
As the Doctor said you'd never do
To take your gun and fight."

HOW ARE YOU

EXEMPT?

you git out

WORDS & MUSIC BY

FRANK WILDER.

BOSTON.

G. D. Russell & Company 126 Tremont, Opposite Park St.

Entered according to act of Congress AD 1863 by G. D. Russell & Company in the Clerk's Office of the Dis. Court of Mass.

"HOW ARE YOU, EXEMPT?"

3

Moderato.

Words and Music by Frank Wilder

8<sup>va</sup>

PIANO

mf

"How are you, Ex - empt?"

I

"How are you, Ex empt?"

Did he

"How are you, Ex empt?"

Tell us

s'pose you feel "all right,"
say that that was all?
what the doc - tor said,

As the Surgeon said you'd
Did he say you were too
Did he say non - com - pos

never do To take your gun and fight.
short Or too slender or too tall?
mentis Which means weakness of the head.

What did he say the
Was your case one of de -
Or did he say your

rall.

a tempo.

matter was? The trouble man with you? Did he say you'd got the bil-i-ty, Once caused by a fall, Did he say you could not back and legs Were shaped so crooked - ly That you'd never do to cres.

heart complaint, And test you through and through?
see, sir, With but one eye at all?
take your gun And go a - long with me?

"How are you, Ex - empt?" I s'pose you feel "all right", As the Surgeon said you'd never do to take your gun and fight.

Chorus.

5

Air. "How are you, Ex - empt?" I s'pose you feel "all right", As the

Alto. f

Tenor "How are you, Ex - empt?" I s'pose you feel "all right", As the Bass.

f

Surgeon said you'd never do to take your gun and fight.

Surgeon said you'd never do to take your gun and fight.

D.C. al seg. S.