Music by J. E. Haynes.

Oh Sherman the brave, with his ar-my array'd In the colors of justice and right, Has dared to in-trude on re-bellions false ground, And put the fierce traitors to flight. Unmindful of hardships, e - - lated with hope, At the prospect of glorious re - nown, Our soldiers pressed on at the dawn of the day, And soon was the great battle won.

This section consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C). The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth-note chords in the right hand and single notes in the left hand.

The chorus section includes four vocal parts (Alto, Tenor, Bass, and Soprano/Air) and piano accompaniment. The key signature remains two sharps, and the time signature is common time. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern as in the first section.

past thro' the conflict un-harmed by the foe, We'll welcome our nations bright star.

past thro' the conflict un-harmed by the foe, We'll welcome our nations bright star.

2.

And still step by step, he right onward doth press,
 And yet foot by foot doth restore,
 The dark tainted land, which by treasons foul hand,
 From the Union was cruelly torn;
 Till on Sumter's proud height with courage and might,
 In triumph again he doth wave
 Our glorious flag which just four years ago,
 Was trailed in the dust of the slave. (CHORUS.)

3.

Then cheer for brave Sherman, defender of right,
 Who led forth our patriot band,
 He's won the bright laurels; his glory shines forth;
 Let all sound his praise through the land.
 Yet here 'twill not end—when long years have roll'd on
 And low in the dust he doth lie
 Will the mem'ry of him, Gen. Sherman the brave,
 In the people's proud hearts never die. (CHORUS.)
