Allegro moderato

While I lay a sleep in a land far away,
The cannons mad roar you can hear that no more

Nor scream of dream to me it was a wonderful dream I must bursting shell Hearts are at east, peace floats on every say of my home across the sea Sailing once breeze but there's much that's left to tell Soon they'll be more for American shore; Returning with victory too; home from far across the foam And each one a Hero will be

Then I
