Democracy

Words by WILLIAM MILL BUTLER

Music by
CARRIE JACOBS-BOND

Moderato

1. Great moth-er of a
2. From God's e-ter-nal
3. For thus God's new-world new-born race; All earth shall be thy dwell-ing place; De-uni-verse Shalt thou re-move the pri-mal curse Which pur-pose we Can, step by step, un-fold-ed see; Co-

Copyright, MCMXIX, by Carrie Jacobs-Bond & Son International Copyright Secured
All Rights Reserved
mocracy, thy holy name Shall set the con-ti-man up-on his fel-low-man Im-posed since first the lum-bus sailed, at His be-hest, From lands by wick-ed nents a-flame, Shall thrill the is-lands of the sea, And world be-gan; A-way with slaves, de-prived of rights And kings op-pressed— God's in-stru-ment, to search the earth And keep thy chil-dren ev-er free.

lil-y-fingered par-a-sites!
find the place for Free-dom's birth.
4. And then rose peerless
5. Today the climax

Washington, America's undaunted son, Whose of the fight; A world embattled for the right, We

Democracy - 4
sprit, caught beyond the blue, En-camped France and brave the tyrant's frenzied hour Till shattered thus shall Europe, too, Until the purpose of the Lord Was be his pow'r And all the world made safe for thee—Hail, plainly written with the sword.

glorious Democracy!