SO LONG RHODE ISLAND

by

Joe Cronson AND Charles Ruddy

PUBLISHED BY Eastern Music Co.
CAESAR MISCH. BLDG.
PROVIDENCE, R.I.
SO LONG RHODE ISLAND

Marcia

By JOE CRONSON
and CHARLES RUDDY

(Not too fast)

The regiments are ready every one,

For Liberty is calling to the fray:

Most every mother's son a sail.

Rhode Island's loyal sons, Are going to show the Huns, Old way;

We'll fight with all our might, We've got to win the fight, For Glory was never known to fail.

And when they sail a way.

Our boys are going to show the way.

You'll hear them softly say:

Now friends cheer up and smile:

All rights reserved
Copyright 1917 by Eastern Music Co., Prov. R.I.
Mechanical rights reserved
CHORUS

So long Rhode Island, So long folks at home, Goodbye dear old Pals;

We're going over to fight the foe, And to face the shot and shell Now don't be grieving 'cause we're leaving For the battle over there, Old Glory'll tell the story when we march into Berlin, Then you'll know we've done our share.