A boy brave-ly died for his coun-try, — For hon-or, for jus-tice and right; — What fight-ing foul wrong as he for-ges a - long, While for him she prays God's tend'rest care — There's a more could he do for the Red, White and Blue That was threatened by Tyr-an-ny's might? — But no lit-tle blue star in the win-dow, — And to her it's a treas-ure un-told, — But she moth-er can claim all the sor-row, — Nor the pride when his sto-ry is told, — He be-watch-es a - fraid, for she fears it may fade, That its col - or might change in - to gold. _____ longs to us all, not in vain did he fall, Or the lit - tle blue star turn to gold. _____
